"Old Home Sunday" to be Observed Aug. 30 at West Bethel Union Church

Old Home Sunday will be observed Aug. 30 at 9:30 a. m. at West Bethel Union Church. There will be special music by local residents as part of the regular morning worship hour. Opportunity will be provided for letters to be read from former pastors who have served the church, and brief remarks by any visiting former pastors.

The Rev. David Samuelson, a retired United Methodist minister from Gorham, N. H., will deliver the message, "Keeping The Covenant". Rev. Samuelson served as Interim Minister from May to August 1980 after which the present minister, The Rev. Norman Rust was called to serve the church. The Rev. Rust will assist with the service.

Worshippers are encouraged to attend in casual clothes. Those who so desire may come dressed in old-fashioned clothing.

Following the service there will be a pot luck picnic with Bean Hole Beans available and coffee provided by the church on the church grounds. If the weather is inclement the picnic will be held in the church vestry. Old Home Sunday provides an opportunity for residents and former parishioners to visit and renew acquaintances as well as to reminisce.

Rev. David Samuelson

Planning the events are Mrs. Paul Head, Mrs. Shirley Gilbert, Mrs. Arthur Head, and Mrs. Rodney Kimball with the assistance of Rev. Rust.

The invitation is extended to all local residents, as well as visitors of the area to join in the celebration of the ministry of West Bethel Union Church.

Woodsmen to Vie at Mt. Abram Saturday, Sept. 5

Once again the Bethel area will be hosting the Maine Invitational Lumberjack Championships. The popular event, first brought to Bethel as a feature in the 1973 Mollykett Day festivities, will be hosted this year by Mt. Abram Ski Slopes, Locke Mills, on Saturday, Sept. 5.

The professional Lumberjack Competition became a popular part of the Mollykett celebration and continued there for several years. In 1977 Evergreen Valley in Stoneham hosted the two-day event which drew over 25 professional competitors from all over the New England states, New York, Ohio, and even a competitor from Australia.

This year's events will feature a field of over 25 competitors, also from all over the Northeast. They will enter events in ax throwing, crosscut sawing, buck sawing, supersaw, underhand and standing block chopping.

Make a point of marking Saturday, Sept. 5, on your calendar, and head for Mt. Abram to make the 1981 Maine Invitational Lumberjack Championships a part of your Labor Day Week End celebration.

BETHEL FURNITURE STOCK TEAM SOFTBALL CHAMPS

Funeral services were held Saturday from the West Bethel Union Church, with interment at Pine Grove Cemetery, West Bethel.

ALBANY HUNT'S CORNER AND VICINITY

Kathy Bennett, Corres. — Here it is the end of August and already it feels like September outside. I've even noticed trees turning red.

Thursday, Sarah Andrews visited her sister, Blanche Button, in North Waterford. Saturday morning Sarah went to Oxford to see the parade with her daughter, Shirley Corbett. Recent dinner guests at Sarah's have been Doris and Allen Fraser.

Recent callers at the home of Albert and Elma McAllister have been Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luneau of Norway; Mr. and Mrs. Brad Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert McAllister, Debbie and Mike Stoneham; Virginia McAllister, Oxford; and Rodney McAllister, and Ken Wakefield.

Alberta and Ed White have moved into the former Lapham Farm. Last Thursday the following gathered at the home of Mike and June Inman and children to celebrate Barb's and Renita's birthdays: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stearns, Ruth Bumpus, Ivy Philbrook, Andy and Cathy Inman and Jason, Howard Inman, Terry, Dareth and Frank Howard, and the guests of honor.

Callers at the home of Hugh and Edith Stearns have been Barbara Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waterhouse, Mike Inman, Cathy and Jason, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hoey, Mr. and Mrs. B. Wentworth, Ivy and Barlon Keniston.

Arthur and Alice Wardwell and Jane, went to Baxter State Park camping for a few days last week.

Darlene and Pam Barton and Michelle Parsons are spending a few days at the Barton Farm visiting.

Brett Barton and Jim Barton spent last week visiting the Connelly family in Norwood, Mass. Friday, Margaret went to Brownfield to help her sister in law Yvette give their sister in law Fran Parsons, a baby shower for the soon to be born twins!

Other callers have been Cindy and Wes Gorman, Roger and Yvette Barton and Dale, and Frank, Sr.

Things here at K-D's Acres are in high gear! I've decided if I had a full time secretary and maid that maybe I'd be able to catch up! The canning, freezing, pickling and jam making is in full swing. Last week I didn't write any news as I just didn't have the time.

Monday evening Dick and I and Franklin and Margaret Barton called on my folks in Bryant Pond and picked up Dave who had been spending a few days there.

Callers last week were Gus, Polly and Paul McAllister, Jane

In Men's two-light league action at the Bethel Inn and Country Club Phil Rolfe continued his dominance of the second half with another six points and seemed virtually untouchable for the second half standings. Phil holds an eight point lead over Alan Connors and Stubby Wheeler with John Morton and Archie Young closing in on fourth place. John Morton was the big winner last week as he won both the closest to the pin and the low gross sweeps. Al Connors took the low net honors.

In Women's two-light league action Jennifer Orino took over first place with 13 points. Barb Brooks slipped into second while Jeri Brooks and Sue Crane were in a tie for third.

Erna Pearce and Rama Snoddy from Oklahoma visited Beatrice Farnum, Helen Ring, and Ruth Dunham on Monday.

The speaker for the afternoon was Jean Nasatowicz, from the Western Maine Transportation System. She presented some up-to-date information in regard to the W.M.T.S. She referred back to 1970 when these services originated as Social Transportation for the Elderly. In 1976 the state coordinated the system and it became known by its present title with its purpose being to provide the elderly, the handicapped and low-income people with a means of travel. This has been a free service until recently when a loss of government funds has necessitated future changes. Beginning Oct. 1, a fare will be required. However, half-fare will be charged for the handicapped and low-income group and there will be no charge for those needing medical transportation. The bus will be available for chartered trips on evenings and week-ends.

She announced that the bus makes a trip to Lewiston through Bethel each Thursday and Friday and will stop for any eligible rider if given a two-day notice. The toll free number is Rumford-1-800-482-0170. A question and answer period followed.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. Elizabeth Lord announced that a course in Defensive Driving for people 55 years and older is in the planning stage and it is hoped the first class can be held in October. This course is sponsored by the A.A.R.P. and the N.R.T.A. and is designed to help older people cope with driving problems. The instructor will be Guy Willberger. The Moses Mason House is being considered as a possible meeting place for these sessions. A small fee will be charged.

Floribel Haines reported that seven get-well and three sympathy cards had been sent. The secretary read a thank-you note from Dorothy Graves, who is recovering from a broken hip at Ledgeview Memorial Home. The president mentioned that a foliage trip is being planned and a definite announcement in regard to it will be made at the next meeting.

Seated at the birthday table were: Betty Blake, Olive Head and Mary Shaw. The cake was furnished by Carolyn Brooks, Angelo and Dorothy Onofrio, and Randal and Sarah Stevens. It was made by Leona Flint. Rev. Cummings offered grace after which a nice ham dinner was served.

The speaker for the afternoon was Jean Nasatowicz, from the Western Maine Transportation System. She presented some up-to-date information in regard to the W.M.T.S. She referred back to 1970 when these services originated as Social Transportation for the Elderly. In 1976 the state coordinated the system and it became known by its present title with its purpose being to provide the elderly, the handicapped and low-income people with a means of travel. This has been a free service until recently when a loss of government funds has necessitated future changes. Beginning Oct. 1, a fare will be required. However, half-fare will be charged for the handicapped and low-income group and there will be

The business meeting was brought to order by President Dick Johnston. The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and accepted. A moment of silence was observed for departed family members. An invitation was extended and accepted from Dick and Polly Johnston to meet at their home again next year. It was voted to pay expenses for food, ribbons and postal cards. Woodsmen to Vie at Mt. Abram Saturday, Sept. 5

Once again the Bethel area will be hosting the Maine Invitational Lumberjack Championships. The popular event, first brought to Bethel as a feature in the 1973 Mollycoddett Day festivities, will be hosted this year by Mt. Abram Ski Slopes, Locke Mills, on Saturday, Sept. 5.

The professional Lumberjack Competition became a popular part of the Mollycoddett celebration and continued there for several years. In 1977 Evengreen Valley in Stoneham hosted the two-day event which drew over 25 professional competitors from all over the New England states, New York, Ohio, and even a competitor from Australia.

This year's events will feature a field of over 25 competitors, also from all over the Northeast. They will enter events in ax throwing, crosscut sawing, buck sawing, supersaw, underhand and standing block chopping.

Make a point of marking Saturday, Sept. 5, on your calendar, and head for Mt. Abram to make the 1981 Maine Invitational Lumberjack Championships a part of your Labor Day Week End celebration.

BETHEL FURNITURE STOCK TEAM SOFTBALL CHAMPS

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres. —

Several of the dawns this week there has been a coolness in the air. But soon the sun threw heat over the valley. Those cool, moist mornings brought beauty in the form of mist, while the land and water waited for the sun. When it lifted above the horizon the shadowy shapes of trees showed at the water's edge. As the main body of mist lifted it left small islands of whiteness like a pond above a pond.

On one of these days I went up the Spring Road to the hardwood ridges. It was a good place to watch the sun's rays paint a picture on the bracken ferns. These plants have tall, coarse stems. Looking at the sunlight and shadows several shades of green are visible blending together. They are not delicate with fragile, lacy beauty, like the toothed wood ferns, but are sturdy individual ferns. Unlike the other fern families which prefer damp, dim spots, the bracken likes the upland soil, boulder-studded pastures and the sides of sandy ravines.

The brook which for weeks has moved languidly and softly over the roots and pebbles went into high gear after the heavy rain. Nature raised her baton and over the slopes and hills the symphony of water began. I hadn't heard the like since last spring.

In many places I saw the Indian pipes; also called ghost flower or corpse-plant. The effect of a cluster of these, nodding, wax-like flowers in the deep woods is fairy-like. They spring from a ball of matted rootlets, and are clammy to the touch and turn black when handled; but they are fascinating.

As I sat beneath the trees, a squirrel hippity-bopped, circumnavigating the fringe of a tree top. A few leaves fell, taking a scenic tour on the way down to the ground.

As I neared home, I heard the gentle sound of cooing. A pair of doves, our newest family, cooling as they do each morning and night. And far beyond came the tom-tom of a woodpecker.

As I came down the last ridge, I heard a dump truck thumping over the road and a small plane buzzed overhead like a June bug. The afternoon was waning and the sun which had spilled sunshine throughout the woods, was now clouding over. It was time to be home and preparing for supper.

The T. T. Club met at the home of Lettie Brooks, West Paris, on Thursday. Those present were: Doris Slattery, Avis Stellhorn, Dorothy Ross, Lyndell Farr, Louvie Coffin, Ruth Hastings, Doris Hayes and the co-hostesses, Lettie Brooks and Collette Morgan. All enjoyed a boiled dinner and a social afternoon.

Our callers this week were Frank and Dorothy Curtis; Ruth Hastings, South Paris; Rachel Perkins, Springvale; Eleanor Inman, Dorothy Betts, Denise and Joshua Adams, local and Zilpha DiArenzo.

Baby Jennette Lynne made her first visit to the farm Sunday, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt and boys, Danny and Ricky of Windsor. Another visitor was Ann Holt, Bethel.

Ann Holt visited her brother, David, in Dexter on Saturday.

Doris Hayes went with her son, Ardell and wife, Betty to a rug show in Gardiner on Saturday. Ardell exhibited several Oriental rugs which he had made.

Callers at the home of Frank and Dorothy Curtis were: Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Porter, Bernadine Putnam, West Peru and Irene Stevens, Augusta.

Ruth Hastings, South Paris, visited Anna Jarvenpaa on Saturday.

— Miss Amy Hanscom, Corres. —

Communion Services were held at the Newry Community Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davis were guests of honor on their 22nd wedding anniversary Aug. 15. Attending besides the honored couple were Mr. and Mrs. Brian Hanscom, Bethel; Kenneth Davis, Jock Morton, Newry; and five friends from Massachusetts.

The Windy Valleys Snowmobile Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Swan Thursday evening. It was voted to hold a flea market Oct. 3 (rain date, Oct. 4), instead of the baked bean supper originally planned. Time and place to be announced later. Proceeds will go to the Oxford County Association for Retarded Children. Solicitations will be made for donations.

Northwest Bethel

— Clarice Gibson, Corres. —

A lovely week end. The days are so much shorter, however, that even when I wait to go into the garden by 10 I still get my feet wet as the ground has not dried off. We had a get-together Friday for George's birthday. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Norway; Aunt Iva and Uncle Don Holden, Norway; and Uncle Danny, Aunt Shirli, and Jacob, So. Paris. Jacob had celebrated his birthday the week before. Grammie Allen brought the cake and Aunt Iva brought 20 Coney Island hot dogs. We also had ice cream.

His brother called up from Oklahoma, but hadn't got the time change right so missed him by an hour and a half in the morning. One tends to forget difference in time. Wilfred also called that week from Hawaii but he also missed talking to his brothers. George went down Sunday to the fair at North Waterford for the four-wheel drive pull.

Joe and Gerry Shimamura and Thelma Merrill went to Old Orchard Beach Aug. 21.

Robert and Linda Howe had a barbecue with Rex and Sheila Cummings as guests.

Newton Stearns, Baltimore, Md., son Dwight Stearns and family also of Baltimore, were camping at Pemaquid, so decided to visit his brother, Robert. When he got to Bethel he found Robert on vacation so he hunted Robert up at Small Point. This was at the time Debbie Seames and children were visiting so they had a lovely visit. It had been over 15 years since the brothers had been together.

Monday, Aug. 17, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Gibbs, went to Mechanic Falls to see Anita's brother and wife's (Dennis and Paula Durgin) new baby girl, Abby Hope.

Sally Hannon has started coaching the girls varsity field hockey team every night at Telstar and the two Hannon girls are still participating in youth soccer Tuesday and Thursday.

Sally Hannon and two daughters and Sid Murphy went to North Conway, N. H., school shopping Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Brown took her mother, Ada Sweeney, back to Hartford, Conn., Aug. 17. They stayed overnight with Althea's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Riley, and returned here the 18th. Mrs. Stan Brown and Mrs. Sweeney visited Mrs. Jessie Perry of Mexico. Mrs. Perry formerly lived on the Songo Pond Road.

Aug. 19, Mrs. Evelyn Hilborn, Mrs. Alberta Angvine, and the dog Tobey, took a trip to Wells, Ogunquit, York Harbor, went to light house at York, and had dinner at Wells Harbor.

Was sorry to find Mrs. Evelyn Hilborn under the weather Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Engevine hosted the Angvine family reunion Sunday with 68 present, including Mr. and Mrs. Victor Coe, Ed and three girls, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Angvine, Kristy, Timmy, Ricky and a friend, Laurie Vogt.

Aug. 18 and 19 Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaw went to Nantasket, Mass., where they visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Jules Shaw at the beach house. A sister, Mimi Coon of New York also joined them.

Saturday night Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Shaw went to Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Glines at a Rotary members' pool party.

Sunday, the Shaws spent the afternoon water-skiing and canoeing at the Keniston camp, Songo. For supper there were also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keniston, David, Jo- dy, Heath and Heather Keniston, Amy Davis, Andy Davis and a friend of Sanford, Mike and Kathy Davis, Conway; N. H., and Tom, Mary, Ben and Maggie Davis, Bangor. This was an unplanned get-together and very welcome.

Kathie Pike Sweetser has had her baby, a girl.

Sylvia Benson left Aug. 17 and came back Wednesday to her daughter's and family, the Ed Gardners, Sabattus. Thursday, Sylvia went to Old Orchard Beach with her daughter, Sharon Kimball, Chantel and Anita, Waterford. Sunday, they and Davis Kimball came for Sunday dinner at Bensons'.

Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benson, Jr., stopped into Frank and Sylvia's on the way to South Dakota. They were going up through Canada part of the trip and will leave Robert there at college.

Saturday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lapham were Mr. and Mrs. Butler Dunn of Ellsworth and Louise Loring and husband of Gilead.

Another of our senior citizens, Ralph Cushing, has passed on at 87. Before moving into the trailer by the red barn, "Cush" lived for years in the late Bill Chapman's place now owned by Mr. Clark.

Thursday, Kathie Chapman and cousin, Jan Lane, of Jacksonville, Fla., flew up to Portland Jetport to spend some time with Kathie's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman. While here the Chapmans had a family get-together at Ada Balentine's camp and Howard, Mackie, and family hosted the affair.

Sue and Amy Laban went to North Conway, N. H., to meet Sue's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Casey, and pick up Chris and Matthew Laban, who had spent three weeks with their grandparents. The boys among other things spent a day at the Boston Museum of Science and also saw the Chinese exhibit at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

Sent in by Eva Yates: A dark, cloudy Monday, looks like rain but the past week has been nice, not too hot and not too cool. This is the last full week of August so it won't be long before people will be saying "I hope we don't get a foot tonight,"—it's pretty cool and they will shiver a little. Report from Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Yates is "we are having a good time and good weather. Have seen some big blueberry fields just loaded with berries. Went into Halifax last night to look around but we are in Dartmouth." The Go-Shoes hung on the hook all week till Friday night—Joe, Peggy and I went to the Conservation Camp at Bryant Pond and Joe helped them read the Grange Code. Saturday night we went again to their model Grange meeting. What a good job they did—hurrah for the young folks. Way back in 1924-25, I peddled milk where this camp now stands. Yesterday, Aug. 23, the three of us went to Rumford. Grange to their public ham dinner with all the fixings but today it is back to the same old things—but thank God for chores to do.

FOUR - FIVE YEAR OLDS GO ON WILDERNESS EXPERIENCE

Seven four and five year old boys and girls from West Bethel Head Start went on an overnight wilderness experience led by Denis Corrin of Bryant Pond on Aug. 14 and 15. The children began their climb on Spruce Mountain at noon on Friday and returned on Saturday at noon, after a good experience in the woods.

These four and five year old children carried their own sleeping bag and food. They were encouraged to bring their own sleeping bag for security. Listen mothers... these children helped to cook and totally washed their own dishes. They saw waterfalls, signs of moose and fox and beautiful banana mushrooms. The girls and boys slept in sleeping bags and a tent for one evening. And the assistant leader, Greg Corrin (age eight), slept in a rope hammock.

This was an experimental program, the first time Denis Corrin has led so young a group on the mountain. It was a great success. These children overcame fears of separation from family. They all gained self-confidence and skill in the outdoors. A special thanks to the two parents leaders, Greg Edwards and Al Saunders.

BETHEL RESIDENT ORDAINED
EPISCOPAL DEACON

Rev. Jacqueline R. Merrill

Rt. Rev. Frederick B. Wolf, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Maine, recently ordained a Bethel woman to the Sacred Order of Deacon. Mrs. Jacqueline R. Merrill is the first woman in the diocese to pursue what is termed the vocational diaconate. This means that she will not go on to become a priest. Mr. Merrill is vice president in charge of operations at Stowell Weld Products, Dixfield. Their son, Scott, is a sophomore at U.S.M.; Robbie, age 16 will attend Gould Academy in the fall and 12 year old Julie Anne is in seventh grade at Telstar Middle School. The Rev. Merrill will be doing non-stipendiary work in the Bethel, Rumford, Norway and Farmington areas.

WALKING WITH JESUS CHRIST

Many a family has found God by way of the daily vacation Bible School, simply because some one asked to take a youngster for a week of learning about Jesus Christ. Many of us have heard of Jonah and his sea-going experience without realizing the truths of this seemingly simple story—a real life happening even as Noah and the Ark—Lot's experience at Sodom and Gomorrah when his wife disobeyed God, looked back and became a pillar of salt.

Noah, a preacher, wasn't heard of until he was 500 years old—when the Bible mentions his three sons—Shem, Ham and Japheth. (Noah was tenth in descent from Adam, the first man.) The world by this time was occupied by many many people—a human race that had for a long time provoked God. Man's shocking badness caused God to have Noah build an ark—where in his family and selected creatures were to find safety from the flood of all the earth that was to follow.

Lot, residing at the wicked city of Sodom was met by three messengers of God—Angels—who were sent to destroy the city by fire—which it was after Lot and his family took their advice and fled. Jonah and the whale—portrayed to children as a delightful event, (some say it's a brief doll fable) is in reality a Biblical truth where in God being weary of the city of Nineveh's continual disobedience to God—was also to be destroyed—Jonah being reluctant to obey God and bring the message of salvation—experienced a trip by way of a whale, ultimately reached Nineveh and the people repented—asked God's forgiveness and were saved.

The scene hasn't changed—we of this age must heed the message—that God loves us and wants us to turn to him. God's Son, Jesus Christ died on the Cross to save sinners, giving his life for you and me. John 3:16 "for whosoever believeth in Him should have everlasting life." If we receive Jesus Christ as our Saviour we will be saved—free from the bondage of sin to enjoy a life with God that shall never end."

RESIDENTIAL BURGLARIES
INCREASING IN MAINE

Reported residential burglaries in Maine increased to 8,481 in 1980 (up 4.9% over 1979). The total worth of items taken by burglars increased to $3,475,941 (up 29.4% over 1979) according to Maine Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) statistics.

"The State UCR residential burglary statistics—compiled from local, county and state police records dealing with reported breaking and entering into residences—should lead each person to ask, 'How secure is my home?'" said Col. Allan H. Weeks, chief of the Maine State Police.

Preventive action, said Col. Weeks is the best way of denying opportunity to a potential burglar.

The state police chief said the following may be used as a "Home Security Checklist".

—Deadlocking sidebolts on all springlatch locks as a minimum security (single cylinder deadbolt lock preferred for exterior doors).

—Doors with glass properly secured by grill work (or by replacing existing glass with unbreakable glass).

—Anti-slide (e. g., woodblock or pins), anti-lift (e. g., screws) protection on sliding glass doors.

—Garage doors secured on both sides.

—Security pins on doublehung windows.

—Exterior lighting on main home entrances for lighting visibility.

—Main entrances visible, and not secluded, from road and from neighbors.

—Timers to control lighting when not at home for extended periods.

—Have a neighbor or someone watch the house and pick up mail, newspapers, etc., when away for an extended period; and,

—Record all serial numbered items or those items engraved with a social security number on a list (such as the Maine State Police Personal Property Record) and keep it in a safe place.

Col. Weeks also provided these "tips".

—Do not leave notes indicating you are not home or when you will return.

—Have salespersons and repair people show proper identification.

—Do not hide spare keys "where no one would ever look".

—Report suspicious persons and/or unusual activities to the State Trooper in your local area or your local police department; and, —If you meet a burglar, let the individual go—better to lose money or property than your life.

Names of Selective Service registrants born in 1962 and the first three months of 1963 are available for inspection through the Maine Selective Service Office.

"In an effort to revitalize the U. S. Selective Service System for military personnel and to provide for a quick response in the event of a national emergency, as well as to meet legal requirements, lists of Maine registrants have been publicly posted in municipal offices and district courts," said Maj. Gen. Paul R. Day, director of Selective Service for Maine.

Gen. Day said the lists of registrants, along with their birth dates, Selective Service numbers, and local board assignments are arranged by zip code based upon the registrant's permanent address.

Some men may have registered but failed to appear on their local board list due to faulty zip code. Errors should be reported to the Selective Service for Maine, Camp Keyes, Augusta, Maine 04333.

The Military Selective Service Act currently requires that men born in 1963 register within 30 days of their 18th birthday at any U. S. Post Office.

"FRIENDS OF THE HEART"
There are families we are born into, and there are families made out of Friends of the Heart. . . . Our blood families are great to have when we need them in family matters and also to gather them once in a while for a family reunion. . . .

But another family consists of our "Friends of the Heart" . . . people we meet by chance, through clubs, or church or who live nearby. They know all about us, where we were last week end, or when we have had times.

They are there all the time and are important in our lives. They know all about our faults and they still like us just the same!!!

Sometimes they move away, and we hear from them once in a while. "Friends of Our Hearts" never forget us and we never forget them. They are our family made up of "Friends of the Heart" . . . Two families . . . one made up of our blood, and the other made up of our hearts. . . .

May God bless them and keep them both.

CROCKETT - GILBERT

Crocker Pond, Albany, was the scene of an attractive wedding when Carol Joyce Gilbert and Clyde Harris Crockett were joined in marriage at 2 p. m., Saturday, June 27.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Pastor Rodney Hanscom and was attended by immediate family members and friends of the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white nylon bridal gown trimmed with lace, a stand up collar, long sheer sleeves and a floor length veil trimmed with lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of daisies, carnations and baby's breath with a single red rose in the center.

Miss Debbie Gaudreau, Gilthead, friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a formal gown of blue and carried a bouquet of white daisies and poms. Bridesmaids were Carole and Carolyn Bennett. Their gowns were light green and they carried yellow daisies.

David Crockett, Bethel, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Neil Gilbert, brother of the bride, and David L. Hale, brother-in-law of the bride.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Pleasant Valley Grange Hall, West Bethel. Refreshments were served by Arlene Lowell, aunt of the bride and Arlyn Hale, sister of the bride. Gloria Crockett, sister of the groom, and Mary Frost, friend of the bride, were in charge of the gifts. Berta Gilbert, sister-in-law of the bride, circulated the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Crockett

The three-tiered wedding cake was made and decorated by Shirley Baker, Bethel, and served by Cynthia Wakefield, sister of the groom.

Mrs. Crockett is a 1981 graduate of Telstar Regional High School and is employed by Newton and Tebbets, West Bethel.

Mr. Crockett is a 1972 graduate of Telstar Regional High School and is also employed by Newton and Tebbets.

They are residing in East Bethel.

TELSTAR SOCCER UNDERWAY

The Telstar varsity and JV soccer teams began workouts on Monday, Aug. 17, in preparation for the season opener with Fryeburg on Sept. 9. Last year's varsity team won three and lost 11 in its second season of existence.

This year's team is looking to improve on that record as seven letter winners will be returning to action this year. Senior tri-captains, Robby James, Rocky Myers and Dave Whitman have been playing varsity soccer the past two years and are providing great leadership. Other returning letter winners are senior Allen Connors; junior Bruce Bolio and Chris Mills; and sophomore Bobby Myers.

Returning from last year to provide some solid team depth will be senior Rusty Merrill; juniors Eric Clements, Sean Kersey, Mike Otero and Mike Parker; sophomores Chuck Haines and Darren Tripp.

Newcomers to the team may be the key to success for this season. Among the newcomers are nine freshmen and two juniors who should see a great deal of action. The team was scheduled to hold its first home scrimmage with Rumford this Thursday afternoon.

BETHEL AREA YOUTH SOCCER — ALIVE AND KICKING

Youth soccer, as many local people are discovering, is a very exciting sport for boys and girls aged 7-12. It began in the area Aug. 3 and at this time 76 participants have signed up and been placed on one of five teams. Youth soccer is a sport that guarantees participation as one of the rules requires that all players play at least half of the game.

Practices have been held two or three times a week since Aug. 3. The last practice before the first round of games will be held Thursday, Aug. 27 at 6 p. m. at the Crescent Park Field.

The first set of games will be held Sunday, Sept. 13, at 1 p. m. at the Telstar varsity soccer field. Games will continue throughout the fall with the final game on Oct. 25. All games will be Sunday afternoons with the first game beginning at 1 p. m. Late sign-ups will be accepted and anyone interested may call 824-3369.

WOODSTOCK HISTORICAL SOC. COLLECTS REMINISCENCES

The Woodstock Historical Society is now collecting reminiscences on the town from its members. It is hoped that they might eventually be included in a short, updated history of the village. Meanwhile, they are available in the museum for anyone doing research on the area.

PURITY CHAPTER #102

Purity Chapter #102, Bethel, will hold a regular stated meeting for the purpose of their Chapter Instructional Visitation on Wednesday, Sept. 3, 1981, 7:30 p.m. Refreshments after the meeting.

Mr. William Elbery on the back of the lake. He also maintained a tea house and tennis courts on the village side of the lake. His sunken garden, lily pond and beautiful flowers could be visited by the townspeople. How sad to see the high fencing reaching to the very lake waters which exists there now. . . . Many noted people came here in summer. (Among them) the Reverend Frederick Kinsman was the Episcopalian Bishop of Delaware who became a convert to Catholicism. He built a summer house at the back of the lake and also a mausoleum where he and his sister are entombed. It was also owned by Shirl Lakeway after his death."

These sorts of remembrances give some indication of what a thriving community Woodstock once was. The Society welcomes the participation of all area residents in this project to preserve the past history of the town. Questionnaire forms are available from Curator Larry Billings.

Also, at the next meeting of the Society, the membership will vote on whether or not to support the local "Don't Yank the Crank" Campaign.

Mary Jane Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil G. Abbott of Andover, on Aug. 15 became the bride of George L. Bilodeau, Jr., son of Mrs. Veronica Bilodeau of Wilder, Vt., and the late George L. Bilodeau, Sr.

Accompanied to the altar by her father, the bride wore an ivory polyester knit gown fashioned with high lace collar, long lace sleeves, natural waistline and a full skirt with a flounce at the hemline. She carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies and angel lace.

Maid of honor was Sandra Comeau, of Rumford. She wore a blue gown with a V-neckline, edged with a white lace ruffle, short puffed sleeves, and a full skirt with a flounce at the hemline.

Best man was Joseph Graziano, Lisbon Falls. Ushers were Albert C. Abbott, Bethel, brother of the bride, and James Bilodeau, of Gorham, N. H., brother of the bridegroom.

A reception followed at the Andover Town Hall, where Denise Foster, Andover, circulated the guest book. The gift table was attended by Maureen Peters of Lewiston. Mrs. Ruth Stidinger catered the luncheon and decorated the wedding cake.

ENROLLMENT UNDERWAY FOR UMA COURSES TO BE OFFERED AT TELSTAR

Enrollment is underway for the college-credit courses to be offered in Bethel at Telstar Regional High School by the University of Maine at Augusta. The three courses, College Writing, Introduction to Management and General Psychology, are beginning level college courses and form a base for many college majors. The University of Maine courses will begin immediately after Labor Day and students who plan to enroll should pick up the registration forms at the Telstar office as soon as possible and complete the registration process to insure a place in the class of their choice.

College Writing is one of the basic building blocks of all college and many career-oriented programs of study. Students in the course will have extensive practice in writing skills necessary for future college work. The instructor for College Writing will be Lucia B. Owen of Bethel. A veteran teacher, Mrs. Owen is the chairman of the English department at Mount Holyoke College and holds a masters degree from Bryn Mawr. General Psychology will be taught by Frank Antonucci, the Director of the Lewiston-Auburn Center of the University of Maine at Augusta. The course will concentrate on psychology as the science of behavior and will cover such areas as motivation, perception, intelligence, learning and personality. General Psychology is also a basic course for most college programs. Introduction to Management, a basic course of business programs, will offer a comprehensive survey of all phases of the management of industry and business enterprises, and will be useful for individuals who have reached a management position but lack formal training, as well as to people enrolled in, or contemplating, a business program.

College Writing will start on Tuesday, Sept. 8; General Psychology, Thursday, Sept. 10; and Introduction to Management, Monday, Sept. 14. All classes will be held at Telstar from 7 to 9:45 in the evening. For further information call the S. A. D. #44 Adult and Community Education Office, 824-2156.

Once the feasibility study is complete, an oral report will be given to the Directors by Tony Lisa, the chief engineer of Dufresne-Henry. Following this report, public hearings will be conducted in Woodstock and Bethel to share the findings of the feasibility study, and to determine the public sentiment regarding the building projects proposed by the Directors.

FEWER CHILDREN WILL QUALIFY FOR FREE MEALS IN SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAMS

Approximately 75,000 Maine children will qualify for free and reduced price meals at school this year under new federal eligibility standards based on family size and income. Last school year, 86,615 were qualified. Income eligibility guidelines are lower this year than last because of federal budget cuts.

Gene M. West, Director of School Nutrition Programs for the Maine Department of Educational and Cultural Services, stated that the new standards apply to meals served under the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs for the 1981-82 school year. This year, schools will no longer be able to offer milk free or at a reduced price to students who bring lunch from home or for recess milk break if the school has a lunch or breakfast program. Another economy measure in the federal budget was to eliminate the milk assistance in schools offering other meal programs. Milk program assistance will continue to be available in schools without a meal program. She said that beginning with the fall term, children from families whose yearly income total is at or below the levels shown below will be eligible for free and reduced price meals or free milk in schools offering only milk:

Miss West said that there is no longer provision for hardship as in prior years. Families may qualify by income and family size alone. Applications must include the social security numbers of all adults in the household.

In most cases, foster children are eligible for benefits and an application should be completed for each foster child, she added. The federal and state rules prevent discrimination because of a child's race, color, sex, or national origin.

Miss West noted that changes in family size or employment status may make children eligible for additional benefits. Such changes should be reported and a new application filed. She stressed that all children in a family receive the same benefits.

All parents of Maine school children will receive a letter about the school's breakfast and lunch programs and for the milk program soon after the first week of school. A copy of the Application for Free and Reduced Price Meals Program or for the Free Milk Program will be attached to that letter. Parents are requested to read the letter carefully, complete the application, and return the application promptly to the school. It is beneficial to the school to receive as many of these applications as possible.

The information provided on the application is confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

BETHEL QUILTER ATTENDS

HAYSTACK CRAFT SCHOOL

Carol Gersen, Bethel quiltmaker, recently returned from a three-week quilting workshop conducted at Haystack Mountain School of Crafts, Deer Isle. Carol was one of eight quiltmakers from across the country selected to attend the workshop which was led by Nancy Halpern, a quiltmaker who teaches and lectures on her craft throughout the United States. The quilting workshop was a multi-level exploration of process, design, and techniques to stretch and deepen the understanding of the quilt medium.

The workshop included group projects and dye work. Carol Gersen, who teaches adult education in S.A.D. #44 and is an active member of the Pine Tree Quilters Guild, hopes to use the skills and techniques learned at Haystack to expand her career as a quiltmaker.

Various other craft workshops are conducted at Haystack Mountain School of Crafts, Deer Isle, Maine 04827.

NORTHERN LIGHTS SINGERS

PRESENTS THREE CONCERTS

IN VERMONT LAST SATURDAY

Last Saturday found the Northern Lights Singers on a three-stop triangular road trip through Northern Vermont.

The group left Bryant Pond at 6:30 a. m. for the 130 mile leg to Morrisville where they presented their program of Christian music at the regular 11:00 service of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Following a delicious luncheon served at the church, the vocal ensemble then set out on the 40 mile stretch to Newport, Vt., which is very close to the Canadian border. There the non-denominational and non-profit contingent presented their concert at 2:30 to the members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church in that community.

The next leg of the journey brought the singers south on interstate 91 through some very rolling and picturesque farm country to St. Johnsbury. Here the group enjoyed a "haystack dinner" served by Pastor and Mrs. Nelson of the local Seventh Day Adventist Church after which the Northern Lights made their third concert appearance of the day.

The total trip covered over 300 miles and represents the most ambitious single day undertaking of the group thus far.

impressed by the lay leadership that has evolved during Rev. Rust's interim period. As for personal goals, both want to fit in with the church, to encourage what is already happening, rather than totally change everything. Brendon and Jean are pleased with the musical opportunities of the church and the area. And they especially look forward to developing the Christian Education program for all ages.

Shared ministry seems perfect for this couple. One can see how much they both share in the raising of their two young girls, Annaliese (age 3) and Caitlin (age 14). Bethel will certainly benefit with the addition of Brendon and Jean to the community.
